

The background of the entire page is an abstract geometric pattern. It consists of several overlapping rectangles of varying sizes and orientations. The rectangles are defined by thin, light-colored lines. Inside some of these rectangles, there is a wavy, textured pattern that resembles wood grain or a stylized landscape. The overall color palette is a range of off-white and light beige tones.

DAWN
BROCKWAY AREA
HIGH SCHOOL
1962

FOREWORD

This 1962 Dawn has been published with one objective: to capture the happenings of a year between its covers. Although life at Brockway High is a myriad of realities which can't be related in black and white, perhaps in some small way we can preserve some of your special friendships. If this book will serve as a bridge to the past and if it will bring back memories of joy and satisfaction, we feel that it will have served its purpose.

There are those without whose efforts this "Dawn" would never have been possible. The staff would like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle, Mr. Hockman, Mr. Lorie, and Mr. Swanson for their help and co-operation.

With these thoughts in mind, we, the Senior Class of 1962, proudly present to you, the student body, your seventeenth edition of the "Dawn."

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1962, wish to dedicate our yearbook to one of the student body's favorite teachers.

This man is not only a teacher but also one of our athletic coaches. His friendly attitude has won him the admiration of both the students and the athletes that he has known.

It is with much gratitude and admiration that the seniors of 1962 dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Bertrand Riggle.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Inside Brockway Area High School are twenty-nine friends and confidants we students look to for intellectual challenge, advice, and off-the-record fun--our faculty members and administration. We work with them all through junior and senior high school. Our leaders in the classroom are also our helpers in making out schedules, planning various meetings, getting publications to press and cooking up pure enjoyment from September to June.

Recent criticism of the American educational system has caused all schools and colleges to take stock. In side Brockway Area High the ferment is reflected in curriculum changes, increased interest in academic subjects, and a change of attitude toward studies. Our school board has been called upon and ably met the challenge of this new era. With much appreciation we would like to extend our gratitude and thanks to the school board of Brockway Area High School.

Once again the Brockway Rover football team turned in a good year. This was the third consecutive year that our team has played fine football. This year ended with the record showing seven wins and two losses. The losses were inflicted by Ridgway and Clarion, the latter being our only conference loss. We were second in the conference, runner-up to Clarion, and placed three players on the all-conference first team. Eight seniors will be gone when Mr. Zoffuto and Mr. Pinge blow the whistle to start practice next fall, but we are confident that next year's team will pick up where this year's team left off. We, the class of 1962, wish them the best of luck.

The Rovers got off to a fine start this year winning their first seven games. While opposing Clearfield and Sheffield, the Rovers lost the next two, but they returned to the win column for the last two games of the first half, making their record 9 and 2. Entered in the tough Allegheny Mountain League, Coach McNulty's Rovers have won three games and have lost one. At the time of this writing, half way through the season, the Rovers are in second place, one-half game behind St. Marys.

The Brockway wrestling squad was hampered to some extent this year by young blood and inexperience. Under Coach Riggle's careful supervision they trained without rest; many achieved outstanding personal records. We know our boys will make good use of their hard won experience and bring many victories home to B.A.H.S. in the coming year.

This year our music department was a very active part of our school. The band entered many parades and won some prizes because of their fine efforts. At DuBois they placed first in marching band competition. Later they attended Band Day at Penn State for the third year.

At the end of marching season the orchestra and concert band started practice. They presented some fine music during the year. Three members of the band attended District Band at Windber. They were Mario Genevero, Mike Veltri, and Lee Rupert. The band was also host for County Band.

The Chorus and Choir were also very active this year. At Christmas they presented a musical medley for the student body. Four members of the Chorus attended District Chorus at Portage. They were Mary Lou Parziale, Sylvia Hicks, Bernard Visniesky, and Bill Preston.

EPILOGUE

Thus, as the 1962 "Dawn" draws to a close, the staff would again like to thank all those who helped us produce this yearbook. Many hours of hard work after school and in the evenings have been worth while, because another "Dawn" is completed.

We hope that we have reminded you of some of your friendships and have brought back some of the memories of a happy year. As we, the Seniors of 1962 graduate, we hope that succeeding classes will carry the spirit of Brockway Area High School as proudly as we have.
